2009 INSIDE MARKET DATA AWARDS BEST NEWS PROVIDER 2009

Reuters, a division of Thomson Reuters

Thomson Reuters was voted best News Provider in 2009 by Inside Market Data, the publication of choice for senior level management providing objective, accurate and timely reporting in the fast-moving market data business. Reuters was awarded this honor by a panel of judges from the financial and market data industries. "From the core Reuters news feeding beats, exclusives and context to our real time customers and the media through to the professional publications and the specialised work of journalist/analysts at IFR, the 2,700 men and women in editorial work tirelessly and brilliantly every day." – David Schlesinger, Editor-in-Chief, Reuters.

2009 PICTURES OF THE YEAR INTERNATIONAL 1ST PRIZE MULTIMEDIA NEWS STORY

Finbarr O'Reilly – Reuters Photographer, Senegal

Finbarr has been with Reuters, West and Central Africa region since 2004 and is responsible for coordinating pictures coverage for 24 countries. During this time Finbarr has worked extensively in the Democratic Republic of Congo, home to the deadliest war in the world today. During more than a decade of fighting, some five million people have died, most from lack of access to food or basic health care.

2009 DIAGIO AFRICA BUSINESS REPORTING AWARDS BEST PUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPH 2009 "THE SEARCH FOR GOLD IN CONGO"

Finbarr O'Reilly – Reuters Photographer, Senegal

Finbarr won for a moving photo essay on the squalid conditions suffered by artisanal gold miners in eastern Congo, which highlighted the way in which exploitation of rich natural resources has prolonged a decade of conflict east of the Democratic Republic of Congo. He has donated his £500 prize money to a charity for Congolese children suffering from polio.
